

Plot Map of African or African American Folktale

Work with your group to create a plot map for the African or African American Folktale that your group selected.

Your plot map should include:

- Title
- Significant events from the plot, correctly placed chronologically on a plot map and briefly described and illustrated.
- The conflict, climax, and resolution should be clearly identified.
- A listing of major characters: protagonist, antagonist, trickster characters should be identified.
- The moral of the story should be explained and interpreted.

Rubric:

4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Title given • All significant events from the plot are included • All events are placed chronologically on the plot map • Adequate description of each event is provided • An illustration for each event is provided • The conflict, climax, and resolution are correctly identified. • Major characters are listed and particular types of characters are correctly identified. • Moral of the story is explained and interpreted • Work shows evidence of care, planning, and is visually appealing • All group members contributed to the work and worked well together
3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Title given • Most significant events from the plot are included • Most events are placed chronologically on the plot map • Adequate description of each event is provided • An illustration for each event is provided • The conflict, climax, and resolution are identified. • Major characters are listed and particular types of characters are identified. • Moral of the story is explained and interpreted
2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Title given • Some significant events from the plot are included • Some events are placed chronologically on the plot map • Minimal description of each event is provided • An illustration for some events is provided • The conflict, climax, and resolution are identified. • Major characters are listed • Moral of the story is explained and interpreted
1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Title given • Few significant events from the plot are included • Few events are placed chronologically on the plot map • Minimal description of each event is provided • An illustration for some events is provided • Major characters are listed