

The Birthday Party

I lay in bed for a few more minutes, waiting for the alarm clock to ring. Then suddenly I jumped out of bed. Today was my birthday party! I pulled on my clothes and ran down the stairs. I had a lot to do to get ready. By 1:00 everything was ready for the party. Just in time! The guests started to arrive. We had lots of fun. I got lots of great presents. By the time I went to bed, I was tired but happy. It had been a wonderful day!
